HOW DO I GET MY SECURITY DEPOSIT BACK?

The landlord does not have to return your security deposit until 30 days after you move. Here are some recommendations:

Before you move out

- Send landlord a letter with the date that you are moving.
 Keep a copy.
- Leave the unit as clean as possible.
- o Take pictures of each room.
- o Do a walkthrough, if possible.

After you move out

- o Return the keys to the landlord.
- Send landlord a Security Deposit Request Letter that includes your forwarding address. Keep a copy of the letter. A sample letter is available in the back of this resource guide.
- Your landlord has 30 days to respond to your request in writing and provide a list of itemized damages your deposit was applied to.
 - If you disagree with your landlord's response, you can sue for your security deposit.
 - If your landlord does not respond at all, you can sue for double your security deposit.

HOW DO I SUE FOR MY SECURITY DEPOSIT?

Be careful! Before you sue your landlord, be sure that you do not owe for rent or damages greater than your security deposit. Here is the process:

- Go to Municipal Court at 1339 Chestnut Street, 10th floor
- Ask to File a Small Claims Complaint. State how much money you are claiming. Include your lease and letters.
- If you are low-income, ask to file a Petition to Proceed In Forma Pauperis (IFP). If the IFP is granted, you will not have to pay filing fees. You may still be responsible for a service fee.

HOW DO I APPLY FOR SUBSIDIZED HOUSING?

What are the main types of subsidized housing?

- 1. Housing and Urban Development (HUD) Project-Based Housing
- 2. Low Income Housing Tax Credit Housing (LIHTC)
- 3. Public Housing
- 4. Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher

How can I apply for HUD Project-Based or Low Income Housing Tax Credit Housing?

- Go to www.PAHousingSearch.com and select your county.
- Call each site or go in person to see if they are accepting applications. Many sites have their own waiting lists and applications.
- Submit an application and if you are placed on a waiting list follow up at least once per year. Inform the site if you change your address or phone number.

How can I apply for Public Housing?

• Go to Philadelphia Housing Authority (PHA) Admissions at 2013 Ridge Ave or call 215-684-4000.

Age, Ancestry, Color, Disability, Domestic or Sexual Violence Victim Status, Ethnicity, Familial Status, Gender Identity, Marital Status, National Origin, Race, Religion, Sex, Sexual Orientation, Source of Income

WHAT IS THE EVICTION PROCESS?

Eviction Diversion

Before filing in court, your landlord must send you a Notice of Diversion Rights and apply for the city's Eviction Diversion Program. If you received a Notice of Diversion Rights, call the Save Your Home Philly Hotline immediately at 215-334-HOME (4663).

1. Eviction Notice

You may receive an eviction or lease termination notice telling you when your landlord wants you to move out. If you do not move out by that date, your landlord must take you to court in order to evict you. You are responsible for rent until you move out and return keys.

2. Court Complaint

If you do not move out, the landlord must fille an Eviction Complaint against you in Municipal Court to evict you. The Complaint should state the reason your landlord is evicting you and the date and time of the court hearing. The Complaint will be sent to you by the court by mail. It should also be posted to your door or hand delivered.

3. Hearing

Eviction hearings are in Municipal Court at 1339 Chestnut St, 6th FI. You must arrive on time to court, or you may lose. At the hearing you can sign an agreement or speak to the judge. If you miss the hearing, you may file a Petition to Open at 1339 Chestnut St, 10th FI.

4. Appeal

If you lose at the hearing, you will have 10 calendar days to file an appeal in the Court of Common Pleas, City Hall, Room 296.

5. Lockout

If you break your agreement or lose in court and do not appeal, then your landlord can legally evict you. Your landlord must file eviction papers with the court—writ of possession and alias writ of possession. The landlord tenant officer cannot change your locks sooner than 21 days after the judgment. If the judgment was for money only, then you may have the right to pay and stay in the property.

WHERE IS MY EVICTION COURT HEARING?

Eviction Court is located in the Widener Building at 1339 Chestnut Street on the 6th floor.

Here is a photo of the entrance from Chestnut Street:

Check your court papers for the date, time and the hearing room for your court hearing.

WHAT SHOULD I BRING TO EVICTION COURT?

Any document related to the reason your landlord filed in court.

- ☐ Lease agreement
- □ Rent receipts
- □ Documents related to repair issues
- □ Photos
- ☐ Utility bills
- Letters/texts to or from the landlord/property manager

WHAT ARE MY OPTIONS IN EVICTION COURT?

1. Ask for a continuance.

- You can get the hearing postponed if you need an interpreter.
- You can ask for a hearing to be postponed to get a lawyer, but the landlord may object.

OR

2. Have a hearing in front of a judge.

- You have the right to have a hearing in front of a judge instead of signing an agreement.
- You can present your evidence and defenses to the judge.
- If you lose, you must appeal within 10 days of the judgment if you want to stop the eviction.

OR

3. Sign a Judgment by Agreement.

- Do not sign an agreement unless you agree and can keep it.
- If you sign an agreement, it is final. You cannot appeal.
- If you break the agreement, the landlord can evict you.

If you are late or miss your hearing, your landlord may have won a default judgment against you. If you want to ask the court for a chance to open the default judgment and have a hearing, you may file a Petition to Open at Municipal Court, 1339 Chestnut St, 10th floor.

Right to Counsel

What is Right to Counsel?

Low-income tenants in select Philadelphia ZIP codes now have the right to a free lawyer if they are facing eviction or housing subsidy termination. This is called Right to Counsel.

> Call the Philly Tenant Hotline at (267) 443-2500 or visit phila.gov/right-to-counsel to find out if you are eligible.

Do I qualify?

You qualify for Right to Counsel if you:

- ✓ Have an income at or below 200% of the federal poverty level, and
- ✓ Live in a ZIP code that is covered by Right to Counsel.
- ✓ Immigration status will not affect your eligibility.

If you are not eligible, you can still access free legal help and resources by calling (267) 443-2500.
